OF EVANSVILLE

Julie Anne Wieck, Soprano

Ms. Wieck is presently a Visiting Instructor in Voice at the University of Evansville. A native of South Dakota, she received her Bachelor's degree in Music Education at the University of South Dakota. After two years of teaching, Ms. Wieck attended the University of Nebraska where she received her Master of Music degree in vocal performance. She is currently in the DMA program at the same institution.

Lonnie D. Klein, Conductor

Lonnie Klein, a native of Henderson, Kentucky was recently appointed to the faculty as Visiting Assistant Professor of Music. His responsibilities include conducting the university symphony orchestra, teaching conducting and various music education courses.

Mr. Klein was most recently on the faculty of Hope College in Holland, Michigan where he was the wind ensemble/orchestra director and also instructor of applied clarinet.

Previous teaching experience includes three years as band director at Daviess County High School in Owensboro, Kentucky.

Klein received his undergraduate degree in Music Education from Murray State University in Murray, Kentucky; his Masters in conducting and clarinet performance at Michigan State University where he studied with Leon Gregorian and Elsa Ludwig-Verdehr. Currently Klein is enrolled in the DMA program in clarinet performance at the University of Illinois.

Besides conducting, Klein has played in the Paducah Symphony, Owensboro Symphony (Ky.), Evansville Philharmonic (In.), Jackson Symphony (Mi.), and Urbana-Champaign (Il.) symphony orchestras.

In addition, Klein has toured with the national "Calvacade Performance Workshops", teaching band pedagogy classes at universities in Kentucky, Tennessee, Louisiana, Ohio, Indiana, Nevada, Michigan, Illinois, Colorado, Nebraska, Missouri, Idaho and Hawaii.
